Tired of Blue Screens on your PC? Want something different?
Why not install Linux on your computer, and join the millions who already have done so.
We're here to help!

On Saturday, May 17th, 2008 the Omaha Linux User Group is presenting their 2008 Linux INSTALLFEST. Linux professionals and hobbyists will be available to help you install, setup, and get to know the basics of Linux.

A keyboard, monitor and mouse will be available for you to use,
there is no need to bring your whole setup.
OLUG Volunteers will be available to help answer your questions.
